1. PURPOSE

To establish a set of work rules and a general code of conduct for all employees of the Atlanta Police Department.

2. POLICY

The Atlanta Police Department shall develop and maintain a set of work rules and a general code of conduct to regulate employee's behavior that shall reflect the highest standards of professionalism in law enforcement. All employees shall comply with established work rules and the general code of conduct. All violations of established work rules shall be investigated fairly, uniformly, and equitably.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

- 3.1 All supervisors are responsible for ensuring that all employees comply with this directive and for reporting and investigating violations in accordance with APD.SOP.2020 "Disciplinary Process."
- 3.2 All employees are responsible for complying with this directive.
- 3.3 The Office of Professional Standards is responsible for investigating violations of this directive as outlined in APD.SOP.2020 "Disciplinary Process".

4. ACTION

4.1 Professional Conduct and Responsibilities

Employees of the Atlanta Police Department shall observe and abide by the following work rules that pertain to on duty and off duty situations:

Atlanta Police Department Policy Manual

APD.SOP.2010

Work Rules

4.1.1 Appropriate Action Required

Employees shall respond in an appropriate manner to all situations by:

1. Being considerate of the rights, feelings, and interests of all persons;
2. Taking action in each situation to provide the necessary and appropriate service and insuring the proper notification of supervisors when appropriate;
3. Requesting the assistance of supervisors when the appropriate action required is unclear, not possible given circumstances, or not within the scope of authority of the employee of whom such action was requested; and
4. Performing official acts in a lawful, restrained, dignified, impartial, and reasonable manner.

4.1.2 Cooperation

CALEA 6^h ed. Standards 2.1.2 and 12.1.4

Employees shall cooperate with other employees and with the employees of other public agencies as necessary toward the accomplishment of professional responsibilities.

4.1.3 Truthfulness

Employees shall be truthful in their written and spoken words at all times.

4.1.4 Conduct

Employees shall not act in an official or private capacity in a manner that shall bring discredit upon the Department or themselves.

4.1.5 Obey the Law

CALEA 6th ed. Standards 1.1.1 and 1.1.2

Employees shall uphold the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Georgia, obey all applicable federal, state, and local laws, and comply with all applicable court decisions and orders of the courts.

4.1.6 Criticism

Employees shall not publicly criticize any employee or any order, action, or policy of the Department except as officially required. Criticism, when required, shall be directed only through official Department channels, to correct any deficiency, and shall not be used to the disadvantage of the reputation or operation of the Department or any employees.

4.1.7 Suspended Employees

An employee suspended without pay must relinquish their city-issued firearm, badge, and all identification cards, or any other department equipment to an OPS Supervisor, as soon as the suspension becomes effective. These items may be stored at OPS or in the Property Control Unit. Upon relinquishing their city-issued equipment, the employee will be given a copy of their property receipt form.

Work Rules

4.1.8 Soliciting Gifts, Gratuities, Fees, Loans, Etc.

Employees shall not solicit any gift, gratuity, loan, or fee where there is any direct or indirect connection between the solicitation and their employment with the Department.

4.1.9 Acceptance of Gifts, Gratuities, Fees, Loans, Etc.

1. Employees shall not accept, either directly or indirectly, any gift, gratuity, loan, fee, or any other thing of value arising from or offered them because of their employment with the Department without the written permission of the Chief of Police.
2. Employees shall not accept, either directly or indirectly, any gift, gratuity, loan, fee, or other thing of value that might tend to influence their actions or that of any other employee in any matter of Department business.
3. Employees shall not accept, either directly or indirectly, any gift, gratuity, loan, fee, or any other thing of value, which might tend to cast an adverse reflection on the Department or any employee thereof.

4.1.10 Reward

Employees shall not accept any reward, of any kind, from any persons, without the prior written permission of the Chief of Police.

4.1.11 Bribery

Employees shall not accept any money, gratuity, loan, fee, gift of any kind, or any other thing of value, from any person if the purpose is intended to influence the employee in the performance of their official duties.

4.1.12 Transactions with Involved Persons

Employees shall not engage in any transaction with any complainant, suspect, defendant, prisoner, or other person involved in a Department matter whereby the successful prosecution of that matter or an employee's personal integrity may be jeopardized.

4.1.13 Using Position for Personal Gain

Employees shall not use their official position, identification, or employment with the Department for financial gain.

4.1.14 Confidentiality of Department Business

Employees shall treat as confidential the business, activities, files and reports of the Department. They must not impart knowledge of the above except to those who have a "right to know." Employees shall also comply with any nondisclosure agreement(s) in which they have entered.

4.1.15 Right to Know

Employees who are unable to determine an individual's or organizations "right to know," shall refer the matter to a supervisor.

4.1.21 Personal Business

Employees shall not use any property, equipment, or facilities purchased, leased, or owned by the Department or the City to conduct personal business.

4.2 General Conduct on Duty CALEA 6th ed. Standard 26.1

Employees of the Department shall observe and abide by the following work rules while on duty or representing the Department:

4.2.1 Public Service

Employees shall promptly, courteously, and effectively assist the public. A citizen's need for assistance takes precedence over any activity, except those of an emergency nature. Routine Department business shall not take precedence over providing service to the public. Prompt assistance shall be rendered whether requested in person, by telephone, or by letter. Employees shall provide immediate attention to the needs of any person without referral to any other employee or agency unless this cannot be avoided.

4.2.2 Courtesy

1. Employees shall be civil, orderly and courteous to the public, co-workers, and supervisors and should not use coarse, insensitive, abusive, violent, or profane language.
2. When in public, in an on-duty capacity or official capacity, employees shall be referred to by their appropriate rank, position, and/or title.

4.2.3 Responsibilities of Supervisor CALEA 6th ed. Standard 11.3.2

1. Supervisory employees shall enforce the rules and regulations of the Department and shall ensure the proper conformity to Department policies and procedures.
2. Supervisors shall take immediate, appropriate action(s) when the conduct of any employee is contrary to the public interest or the good reputation or proper operation of the Department.

4.2.4 Manner of Issuing Orders

Supervisors shall issue orders to employees in a clear, articulate, understandable, and professional manner.

4.2.5 Unlawful Orders

Supervisors are prohibited from issuing any order which is in violation of any law or Department rule, regulation, directive, or procedure.

4.2.6 Obedience to Unlawful or Improper Orders

1. Employees are not required to obey an order that is improper or contrary to federal, state, or local laws or Department rules, directives, or procedures. Obedience to an unlawful or improper order is never a defense for unlawful or improper action.
2. The responsibility for refusal to obey an order rests with the refusing employee who shall be required to justify his/her actions.

4.2.7 Improper Orders

Employees who receive an improper or unlawful order shall, at the first opportunity, report the facts of the incident and the action taken in writing to the Chief of Police through the chain of command.

Atlanta Police Department Policy Manual

APD.SOP.2010

Work Rules

4.2.8 Conflicting Orders

1. Upon receipt of an order conflicting with any previous order, instruction, or directive, the employee affected shall, when practicable, advise the person issuing the second order of this fact in writing.
2. Responsibility for countermanding the original instruction rests with the individual issuing the second order.
3. If so directed by a supervisor, the latter command shall be obeyed, unless that command is unlawful or improper.

4.2.09 Obeying Supervisory Personnel

Employees shall promptly obey all proper and lawful orders of supervisors and other employees assigned to act in a supervisory capacity, including any order relayed from a superior by an employee of the same or lesser rank.

4.2.10 Chain of Command

Employees shall conduct all official business through the chain of command. While lateral communication is encouraged, employees shall inform immediate supervisors of significant matters and parties involved in such lateral communications.

4.2.11 Forwarding Written Communication

Employees who receive a written communication from another employee directed to a higher authority shall initial and promptly forward it through the chain of command, indicating approval or disapproval, and shall make such explanatory comments as the matter requires so as to fully inform the higher authority.

Employees must be able to lift and/or carry weights of fifty to one hundred pounds.

4.2.16 Sleeping on Duty

1. Employees shall not sleep or doze during the time they are on duty and are responsible for reporting to work physically able to appropriately complete the tour of duty.
2. Employees unable to remain awake or complete the tour of duty shall report to their supervisor who shall take appropriate action.

4.2.17 Malingering or Pretending

Employees shall not attempt to avoid their duties by feigning illness or by giving a false impression that they are performing their duties.

4.2.18 Punctuality

Employees shall be punctual when reporting for duty or reporting or performing any official act.

4.2.19 Absence from Duty

Employees shall not absent themselves from their assignment without permission from a supervisor or until properly relieved.

4.2.20 Keeping Up to Date

Employee reporting for duty shall acquaint themselves with events that have taken place since the end of their last tour of duty that pertain to their responsibilities or assignment.

4.2.21 Submitting Reports

Employees shall submit all reports which are required of them as promptly, correctly and completely as possible.

4.2.22 Identification Cards

Atlanta Police Department Policy Manual

APD.SOP.2010

Work Rules

1. While on duty and not in uniform, in Atlanta Police Department facilities, employees shall wear the department's issued photo identification card above the waist.
2. While on duty and not in uniform, outside department's facilities, employees shall have the department issued photo identification card readily available on their person. Employees working undercover assignments are exempt from this requirement.
3. While in uniform, other than the sole exceptions of a rain slicker or a traffic direction vest, employees shall at all times wear a conspicuously visible nametag.

This Subsection, 4.2.22 (3), may not be deleted, revised, or amended pursuant to the November 29, 2018 Order in Calhoun, et al. v. Pennington, et al. 1:09-CV-3286-TCB. Consult the City of Atlanta Department of Law with any questions or concerns.

4.2.23 Giving Identification

1. Employees who are in uniform or have displayed a badge or other indicia of police authority (such as a police vest, etc.) shall identify themselves by name and badge number upon request at some point before the end of an encounter with a civilian.
2. Sworn employees at the rank of Investigator or above shall provide, upon request, the badge number that was initially assigned to them at the rank of Officer.

This Section, 4.2.23, may not be deleted, revised, or amended pursuant to the November 29, 2018 Order in Calhoun, et al. v. Pennington, et al. 1:09-CV-3286-TCB. Consult the City of Atlanta Department of Law with any questions or concerns.

4.2.24 Senior Employee in Charge

1. When two or more employees of equal rank are simultaneously engaged in the same operation, the employee with longest service in rank shall be in charge, except when otherwise designated by a supervisor or Department policy.

4.2.25 Private Business

Employees shall not conduct private business while on duty. Lunch periods are exempt.

4.2.26 Peddling and Soliciting Prohibited

Employees shall not peddle or solicit in Department facilities or on Department property unless authorized by the Chief of Police.

4.2.27 Loitering by Public

Employees shall not permit persons to loiter on Departmental premises or in a Department facility or vehicle, unless they are conducting official business.

4.2.28 Intentionally Omitted

Employees shall not intentionally omit information from any reports, statements, or interviews.

Atlanta Police Department Policy Manual

APD.SOP.2010

Work Rules

4.2.29 Department Correspondence

Employees shall not use Department stationery, postage, duplicating machines, typing support, or other equipment, except for official Department correspondence.

4.2.30 Recovered Property

Employees shall be responsible for all property coming into their possession. Employees shall handle all property in accordance with Department policy and procedure.

4.2.31 Recommending Attorneys, Bondsmen, Etc.

Employees, while on duty or acting in an official capacity, shall not recommend an attorney or bondsman nor act as a bailer.

4.2.32 General Appearance

1. Employees shall be neat, clean, and well-groomed while on duty. Dress shall be appropriate given the position and/or function of the employee and reflect standards that depict public service employees in the best possible image.
2. Employees shall not wear articles of clothing or ornamentation while on duty if the wearing, or the article itself, symbolizes or represents an organization or philosophy which supports discrimination in any form or any other abridgement of human rights.

4.2.33 Conformance to Directives

Employees are required to familiarize themselves with, and conform to, the rules, regulations, directives, and standard operating procedures of the Department.

4.2.34 Abuse of Leave

Employees shall not misuse or abuse the leave policies, procedures, practices, or records of the Department.

4.2.35 Job Actions Prohibited

Employees shall not, at any time, under any circumstances, participate in any job actions or apparent job actions (i.e., strikes, walk-outs, work stoppages, work slowdowns, or "sick-outs", etc.)

4.2.36 Personality Clashes

Employees who have personality problems involving another employee, which cannot be resolved amicably, may consult with any of the following:

1. His/her immediate supervisor;
2. His/her unit, section, or division commander;

Atlanta Police Department Policy Manual

APD.SOP.2010

Work Rules

3. The Personnel Services Unit commander; or
4. The Bureau of Employee Assistance Services

4.2.37 Unsatisfactory Performance

1. Employees shall maintain sufficient competency to perform their duties and assume the responsibilities of their position. Employees shall perform their duties in a manner which shall establish and maintain the highest standards of efficiency in carrying out the functions and objectives of the Department.
2. Unsatisfactory performance may be demonstrated by a lack of knowledge of the application of the laws required to be enforced; an unwillingness or inability to perform assigned tasks; the failure to conform to work standards established for the employee's rank, grade, or position; the failure to take appropriate action on the occasion of a situation or incident deserving a public safety employee's attention; absence without leave; or unexcused absence from a duty assignment during a tour of duty.
3. In addition to other indications of unsatisfactory performance, repeated poor evaluations and/or repeated infractions of Department directives shall be considered prima facie evidence of unsatisfactory performance of duty:

4.2.38 Outside Employment

Employees shall not engage in any employment outside the Department without the prior written permission of the Chief of Police or his or her designee.

4.2.39 Understanding Directives

Employees who do not understand an official Department directive or procedure shall seek the advice of their supervisor.

4.2.40 Call to Duty

Employees shall be subject to call to active duty 24 hours a day and shall be prepared to assume active duty if ordered by a supervisor.

4.2.41 Available for Service

Employees shall keep themselves available for service at all times while on duty unless they are on specific assignment.

4.2.42 Wearing of Uniforms and Equipment

Employees shall comply with the standards and regulations that address the wearing of Department uniforms and equipment.

4.2.43 Radio to Remain On

1. Employees who have been assigned a radio for communicating purposes shall ensure that the radio is fully operational, powered, audible, and tuned to the appropriate frequency at all times while on duty unless otherwise authorized by a supervisor or necessary for the safety of the employee.

Atlanta Police Department Policy Manual

APD.SOP.2010

Work Rules

2. Employees who have been assigned a Department or City issued communication device shall ensure that the communication device is fully operational, powered, and audible while on duty unless otherwise authorized by a supervisor or necessary for the safety of the employee.

4.2.44 Interfering with Radio Communication

Employees shall not willfully, intentionally, or otherwise interfere with radio communication except in exigent circumstances.

4.2.45 Emergency Situations

Employees shall perform in all emergency situations in accordance with established Department procedures and shall perform during training drills in the same manner. Emergency situations may include, but are not limited to: terrorist activities or attacks, bomb threats or explosions, acts of civil unrest, fires, etc.

4.2.46 Mutual Protection/Assistance

Employees shall assist and/or protect any other employee immediately upon observing or hearing that said employee needs or requests assistance.

4.2.47 Off-Duty Situations

Employees shall take appropriate and necessary action when off duty in any situation where a felony is being committed or human life is endangered. Employees shall turn the situation over to on-duty public safety employees as soon as possible.

4.2.48 Cowardice

Employees shall not shrink from danger or fail to discharge their official duties.

4.2.49 Abuse of Authority

Employees shall not use their authority to abuse, harass, oppress, or persecute any person.

4.2.50 Maltreatment or Unnecessary Force

1. Employees are expressly prohibited from the unnecessary or unreasonable use of force against any person or property
2. Employees shall only use that force which is reasonable and necessary to affect an arrest, prevent an escape, necessarily restrict the movement of a prisoner, defend himself/herself or another from physical assault, or to accomplish other lawful objectives. The reasonableness inquiry refers to whether the employee's actions are "objectively reasonable" in light of the facts and circumstances confronting him or her, without regard to their underlying intent or motivation. The "reasonableness" of a particular use of force must be judged from the perspective of a reasonable officer on the scene, and its calculus must embody an allowance for the fact that police officers are often forced to make split second decisions about the amount of force necessary in a particular situation (Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386 (1989)).

4.2.51 Reporting Required When Force Used

Employees who use force against any person or the property of any person shall make a report of the incident and report it to their supervisor as soon as practicable.

4.2.52 Off-Duty Employee in Uniform in Public

Employees appearing in public in uniform shall be considered on duty and must be prepared to assist the public by taking whatever public safety action is appropriate and necessary.

4.2.53 Situations Involving Off-Duty Employees

Employees confronted with a situation requiring public safety intervention or action in which an off-duty employee is involved shall not intervene, except to meet an emergency that exists. As soon as possible, the employee shall notify Communications and request that a supervisor or OPS respond to the scene.

4.2.54 Civil Actions

Employees shall not render any aid or assistance, in an official capacity, to either party in a civil dispute, except when ordered to do so by the court. This shall not prohibit an employee from advising a person that a matter is civil and referring that person to the proper agency for service.

4.2.55 Divorce Actions

Employees shall not render any aid or assistance to either party in any divorce case or any case leading up to a divorce action, except where an emergency exists or a criminal act (or potential criminal act) has been committed and requires public safety action.

4.2.56 Situations Involving Family or Friends

Employees who are confronted with a situation where public safety action is required involving family members or friends shall not intervene unless an emergency exists and then only to meet that emergency until the Department can be notified and another public safety unit arrives.

4.2.57 Outside Affiliation

Employees shall not affiliate with, or become or remain a member of, any organization if such affiliation would in any way interfere with or prevent them from performing their duties as employees of the Department.

4.2.58 Conflicts of Interests

1. Employees shall not invest or hold investments, directly or indirectly, in any financial, business, commercial, or other private transaction which creates, or gives the appearance of creating, a conflict with their official duties.
2. Employees shall not be or become interested, directly or indirectly, in any manner, except as provided by law, in any business dealings with the City of Atlanta.

Atlanta Police Department Policy Manual

APD.SOP.2010

Work Rules

4.2.59 Fraternizing with Person(s) of Questionable Character

1. Employees shall not fraternize or associate in a personal, social, or financial relationship with any person(s) of questionable character except in the performance of their official duties and with the knowledge and consent of their supervisor.
2. Employees shall not idle, loiter, or spend unnecessary time in or around a place of ill-repute or a place of questionable reputation except in the performance of their official duties and with the knowledge and consent of their supervisor.

4.2.60 Access to Places of Business

Employees shall not have a key, access card, or code to any place of business on their assigned beat or relating to their assignment without the written permission of their supervisor.

4.2.61 Supervisor-Subordinate Relationship
